

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY: IT'S YOUR MONEY – GET IT BACK!

The Kansas State Treasurer's Office is safeguarding over $400 million in lost property for the rightful owners. State Treasurer Lynn Rogers wants to reunite you with your money.

- ✓ Unclaimed property is generated when people lose or fail to cash a check or forget to alert their bank or stockbroker when they move. Any company or organization that writes checks, drafts, or warrants has the potential to possess unclaimed property.
- ✓ The state serves as a permanent custodian of the property until the rightful owner is found.
- ✓ Searching and claiming your unclaimed property through the Kansas State Treasurer's office is easy, safe, and free!
- ✓ We won't collect and sell your email address or spam you with calls.
- ✓ The average claim paid out in 2020 was $207 – there's a good chance you have money waiting for you.
- ✓ Be sure to check under all names or places you've lived.

What is Unclaimed Property?

Mostly, it's money, but it can be any financial asset that has not been claimed by its owner or has not had any owner-generated activity for a specific period of time (one to five years for most items). Unclaimed property is not real estate.

Examples include:

- Payroll checks
- Refunds & Overpayments
- Money orders
- Bank Accounts
- Stocks & bonds
- Safe Deposit Box Contents
- Insurance Proceeds

As always, claiming your unclaimed property through the Office of Kansas State Treasurer Lynn Rogers is easy, safe, and free!
